

TRAILS EASTERN SHORE CAREER PROFILE

Before watching the video, rate whether you agree or disagree with the following statements:

STATEMENT	AGREE	DISAGREE
I have to live in a large city to find a job that uses STEM.
Problem solving is an important skill for any career.
The industries where I live are closely tied to jobs in STEM.
Engineering is not important for local businesses.
Local businesses need manufacturers, chemists, engineers, and other STEM professionals to be profitable and sustainable over time.

+ Discussion Questions:

1. Provide one example of how Bryan uses problem solving in his career.
2. How are other careers and businesses interconnected with Bryan's tackle business?
3. What STEM-related careers can you name that are important for businesses on the Eastern Shore?
